ISCA will host the 2009 Pre-NOAC Trade-O-Ree prior to and during NOAC registration day (Aug. 1st) of the 2009 National Order of the Arrow Conference. NOAC will be on the campus of Indiana University and for the first time ever, the Trade-O-Ree will be onsite as an official conference event, listed in the conference program. We have room for 450+ tables in the 54,000 sq.ft., indoor, air-conditioned tennis facility. ISCA anticipates upward of 7,000 visitors to this event.

Table locations will be assigned on a first come basis and priority will be given to multiple table holders and in order of receipt of your application. Tables are 8 feet long. ISCA reserves the right to issue or modify table assignments at any time. Additional information and/or details may be available on the ISCA website - <http://www.ScoutTrader.org>

Being an official NOAC event on Saturday, the person on the vendor application must supply a current BSA registration number that has been issued by your local council office on this application. This application cannot be processed without it. On Saturday, August 1, Class A Scout uniform will be the recommended dress.

Note: You must subscribe to the ISCA Code of Ethics to be a vendor at this ISCA hosted Pre-NOAC TOR. By applying for a table, you are agreeing to abide by the Code of Ethics (see the ISCA website for a full copy of the Code of Ethics).

Supply your email address carefully as an email confirmation will be sent confirming your application and will be used for future communications. Apply for tables by completing and submitting this form along with payment in full.
